

Valard invites interested members of the participating communities to apply for the following position on the Waasigan Transmission Project

Foundations Labourer

Description:

- Assist the helical and loader operator
- Loading and unloading construction materials
- General labor duties
- Falls under union scope, selected candidates will need to sign up and maintain membership with the union

Requirements:

- Valid driver's license
- 5+ years of experience working around heavy equipment
- 5+ years of experience in the construction industry
- Ability to work shifts, independently or with minimal supervision
- Proficiency in using technology
- Capability to work under tight schedules and in rough terrain
- Ability to read blueprints and follow specifications and work procedures
- Safety driven
- Situational awareness
- Capable of following directions
- Working outside for long durations
- Previous helical experience a bonus

This role is based in Thunder Bay/Dryden. Candidates must be able to work a 20 days on and 8 days off schedule. The role is expected to last for 1 shift, with the possibility of extension.

Positions Available: 1

Estimated Start Date: February 10, 2025

Closing Date: February 5, 2025

Please forward resumes to hr@valard.com